

SHARPS QUESTIONNAIRE

Name

Date Completed

Q1 What is a sharps injury? (Select one)

- A cut from a used needle
- Bite or scratch from a patient which breaks the skin
- Accidental cut from a scalpel
- All of these

Q2 What is a contamination injury? (Select two)

- Splash of body fluid to eye or mouth or non-intact skin
- Splash of blood to intact skin
- Spillage of medication whilst preparing IV
- Stab from the needle after phlebotomy

Q3 In regard to sharps injuries, when should an AIRS form be completed? (Select one)

- Only if the injury is serious
- If someone tells you to
- Every time there is a sharps injury
- Never

Q4 Who is responsible for tracking your injury after it has happened (Select one)

- Only your manager
- The Risk Management Department
- The Emergency Department
- Yourself and Occupational Health

Q5 What is the correct first aid procedure for a splash to the eye? (Select one)

- Wash eye with running water
- Remove contact lenses
- Seek assistance if necessary
- All of these

Q6 If a sharps injury occurs but the donor cannot be identified, the injury should still be reported immediately to Occupational Health (between 0800 and 1600). (Select one)

- True
- False

Q7 Where or to whom could you report an injury if it occurs out of hours, between 1600 and 0800, on weekdays or during the weekend? (Select two)

- Clinical Site Team
- Occupational Health
- The Emergency Department
- Your Manager

Q8 What is the most infectious of the blood-borne viruses shown below? (Select all that apply)

- Hepatitis C
- HIV
- Hepatitis B

Q9 How often must you complete the Sharps eLearning module as part of your mandatory Essential Core Skills training (Select one)

- At least once every 3-years
- At least once every year
- At least once every 2-years
- Once only

Q10 How soon should you report a sharps or contamination injury after it has happened? (Select one)

- When your manager tells you to report it
- Within 48 hours of the incident
- Immediately
- At the end of your shift

Thank you for completing this Q and A session. We will feedback your score in due course.

Score ___/10

Pass

Resubmit